Rising 7th graders,

I am thrilled to be your ELA teacher! In order to ensure that you are prepared for next school year it is crucial that you continue reading over summer break. All rising 7th graders will need to complete the assignment listed below. This assignment will be due on the first day of school and will count as your first grade of the semester.

Assignment Details
You will read a novel of your choice independently this summer. After finishing the novel you will choose ONE of several options to demonstrate your learning. Listed below are a few novels that might interest you. You do not have to choose a book from this list

1. New Kid by Lois Lowry
2. Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt
3. Trials of Apollo by Rick Riordan
4. Tex by SE Hinton

Summer Reading Assignment Options (CHOOSE 1)

- Write a poem or song lyrics that connect to your novel. Focus on the plot, characters, and/or personal connections you have with the novel. (*30 lines or longer)

- Write a letter to the author of your chosen novel. Explain what you liked and/or disliked, ask any questions you have about the story/characters, explain what you would have changed if you were the author, and mention at least one thing you will always remember about this novel and why. (*at least one full page and written in letter format)

- Create a poster detailing the plot of your novel. Include descriptions of the events in the exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. Write a statement of the main theme with quotes from the novel for support.

- Create an illustrated book cover for your novel. Include a summary of the story that describes the main character and the central conflict.

If you have any questions please contact me  @jarivera@philasd.org

Can’t wait to see you all!